Divine Mercy Sunday

April 27,

*The Risen
Lord Brings
Peace:
Believe & Proclaim Him!*

May you continue to rejoice in the Risen Lord Jesus and be visible reminders to others that Jesus is constantly extending Divine Mercy and Love

JESUS, KING OF MERCY,
I TRUST
IN YOU

"I yearn for souls, My daughter. On the day of My feast, the Feast of Mercy, you will go through the whole world and bring fainting souls to the spring of My mercy. I shall heal and strengthen them."

(Diary of Saint Faustina, 206)

Gospel Reflections: As the disciples see Jesus and recognize his identity, their fear gives way to joy. This transformation is not just emotional but spiritual and existential. They are not just happy to see him; they are filled with the joy of knowing that death has been conquered, that Jesus is indeed the promised Messiah, that their faith is not in vain, and that the Divine Mercy of God is manifested in the personal encounter between Jesus and Thomas. Jesus repeats his greeting of peace and commissions the Apostles to carry his message to the world. Today we are invited to reflect on the Mercy of God and the transformative power of encountering the risen Christ, and the call to be sent as His witnesses. He tells them, "Receive the Holy Spirit." It is the Holy Spirit who equips and encourages us for our mission. Of course, like Thomas, we too can be victims of doubt in our faith journey, but Jesus challenges us to believe without seeing. Today how can we embrace and deepen our faith in the resurrected Lord?

Love of God Increases Our Desire for God

When you love God and rejoice in that love, your desire for God will increase. The more you know Him, the more you will want to know Him, and the more you want to know Him, the more you will know Him. Similarly, the more you love Him, the more you will want to love Him, and the more you want to love Him, the more you will love Him. Finally, the more you serve Him, the more you will want to serve Him, and the more you want to serve Him, the more you will serve Him. Knowledge, love and service increase the desire for these, and the increase in desire for these three increases each one

Do you want to know, love and serve God with all your heart, mind, soul and strength? Hopefully you do. How is this achieved? It's achieved by growing in these virtues and allowing them to increase your desire for them all the more. Look, today, at your desires. Inquire, within, about the desires of your heart. If you do not see a wholehearted desire to know, love and serve God, then commit yourself to these ends by choosing them. From there, the Lord will take over and direct you in accord with His own merciful Heart.
